THE TEACHERS AND MUSICIANS

Graham Donald started dancing in Edinburgh and danced with the demonstration team there for a number of years. Recently, he has been teaching at day and weekend schools in the U.K., Europe, North America and New Zealand, as well as training candidates for all five modules of the RSCDS teachers' examination.

Mervyn Short is qualified to teach both Country and Highland dancing. He has taught extensively in the U.K. and continental Europe, and is an assessor for RSCDS children's medal tests. He is currently chairman of BHS Borders Branch. He also devises dances, and has recently published a book of these.

Luke Brady is widely known in the U.K. as a SCD band leader. He has played accordion for RSCDS Dundee branch for 8 years and at the St Andrews Summer School for 2 years. He has also played in continental Europe and North America.

Robert Mackay has played piano for Scottish Country Dance Classes around the world for 35 years including 4 weeks at RSCDS Summer School in St Andrews for the past ten years. He has also tutored courses for musicians and gives talks on Scottish music regularly.
